May is tentatively planned as a tour of the new HQ AFRC facility. Plans for the rest of the calendar year are still in the works. The schedule of presentations is attached to these meeting minutes. One potential revision may be either a tour of or a briefing from the Veterans Education Career Transition Resource (VECTR) Center. The VECTR Center is a local agency focused on helping veterans transition to civilian careers.

Mr. Justin Knight has updated the Robins Post Membership Roster based upon HQ SAME National records. He also mentioned interest in re-establishing some type of newsletter for our Post. He will provide a copy of the Atlanta Post newsletter/email for us to review to help us shape an idea for what we might do.

Email notifications have been sent out to all local High School Counselors and the SAME Post Membership announcing the SAME Engineering and Construction Summer Camps. Applications are due via on-line processes on the SAME web site. The deadline for applications is 15 March 2022. Mr. Coats will update the college scholarship applications next month. Mr. Coats renewed our Post Sponsorship of the local Scout Troop so that they can continue to operate on Robins AFB. Mr. Coats discussed the potential to support Eagle Scout projects and other mentorship opportunities with their Troop leaders.

Events and Small Business:

Mr. Eric Anania will start planning our next Golf Tournament. He expressed interest in planning an Industry Day in conjunction with the Golf Tournament. Mr. Coats recommended contacting the Museum of Aviation for potential dates that could be matched with potential golf dates. If there are good time/date options, Mr. Coats recommend a committee be established to help planning both events.

SAME National:

Mr. Coats submitted the Post Annual Report and the Streamer submission on 27 January 2022.

General Topics:

Mike Coats invited Ms. Angie Martinez, Regional Vice President and Ms. Pam Little, Assistant Regional Vice President inviting them to our next meeting in order to re-install our Post Officers/Directors.
